Online ($29.50) + Conclusion Class ($10)

Internet Courses require an In-Person Conclusion Class. A portion of the course is completed online at your convenience, followed by a conclusion class that covers skills and activities done in person.

Note: Online course certificate of completion required to participate in conclusion class.

In-classroom conclusion class Details:

4-6 hours of class time, hands-on exercises, Colorado laws and regulations, written test, live fire exercise, and cost of $10 (cost for Grand Junction Classes).

C Colorado Approved Online Course can be found at:

Hunter-ed.com ($29.50).

Traditional Class ($10)

The basic purpose of a Hunter Education class is to teach hunters to be safe, legal and responsible. Topics covered include wildlife management, wildlife identification, ethics, laws and regulations, and firearms safety and handling. While Hunter Education classes enable safer hunting, they also help hunters to be more successful in their hunts – and emphasize ethical hunting behavior.

Class Details

In person, classroom setting, 10 hours minimum class time (split into 2 or more days), written test, live fire exercise, cost is $10 (for Grand Junction classes).

Register for a Traditional or Internet Conclusion Course at

<https://register-ed.com/programs/colorado>

Registration opens approximately two months in advance of the anticipated course date.
